

HOW TO AVOID TICKET SCALPERS

CUP-CRAZY fans in High Wycombe have driven Wanderers' treasurer Roger Lee almost hairless! He got so fed up with being pestered for tickets for Wycombe's third-round FA Cup tie against Middlesbrough next Saturday that he borrowed a woman's wig to go shopping.

Roger, 40—in his disguise, top right — explained: "When I drove into a car park people started banging on the window and tried to get into the passenger seat."

"So I drove straight to a friend's house. His wife lent me a wig and raincoat, and I sneaked down to buy a present for my 12-year-old son David."

"But I'm afraid my wife will have to wait until the New Year for her Christmas present. I daren't even go shopping with my wig on any more."

"Despite my wig, people clearly recognised my face, and were trying to work out the hair. Perhaps they thought I had gone off my rocker."

Roger, seen above as he really looks, with the precious tickets, added: "The town has gone berserk since the draw. My phone has rung so much that my wife now stays out of the house when I'm at work."

There is a crowd limit of 12,000 on the game and Wycombe's allocation of 8,000 tickets was sold in two hours.
